We're Hiring

We are looking for a practicing Catholic with knowledge of church sacraments for the position of Sacramental Preparation Coordinator. The successful candidate will need strong organization skills, computer skills and the ability to minister within the context of the parish team. The primary responsibilities of this position include: lead baptismal preparation sessions for infant baptism, coordinate OCIA Adapted for Families, liaise with the Catholic school sacramental preparation and coordinate sacramental preparation for students who do not attend Catholic schools.

Complete job description available on the parish website or from the office. Resumes accepted until the position is filled. Submit resume, with 3 references (including a reference from current parish priest if you are not from St. Joseph Parish) to Fr. Charles Duval, C.Ss.R. Resume may be submitted to the parish office or electronically to charlesduval@gpcsd.ca

The Dignity of Life

November 20, 7:45 pm, Tranquille Hall
Even with the many advances in medicine, death remains an inevitable reality. Rather than see it as the great enemy, our Catholic faith sees it as an important journey. Indeed, our faith in Jesus Christ has much to teach us about living well until the end of life. We will reflect on how our Catholic faith changes our perspective on both palliative care and medical assistance in dying.
